YOUR PORTS OF CALL

HALF MOON CAY: This Private Island offers an exquisite two-mile crescent-shaped, beach, featuring stunning aquamarine blue seas, powder white sand beaches and exotic vegetation. Full service bars are located throughout the island and there are 3 water sports center that rent beach gear and water sport equipment. At the marina you'll find an information booth, restrooms, bar, Bahamian straw market, ice cream shop, post office and an air-conditioned island shop. BBQ style food is also served and included while on the private island.

SAN JUAN: Take a tour of the Spanish Colonial fortress San Cristobal - the 18th century fortress formerly known as the "Gibraltar of the West Indies." Take a walking tour through five centuries of history along the cobblestone streets of Old San Juan.

ST THOMAS: Spend a day at Magens Bay, voted by National Geographic as one of the ten most beautiful beaches in the world. Go mountain biking, kayaking, snorkeling or scuba diving. Browse through the shop-lined streets of Charlotte Amalie in the US Virgin Islands.

GRAND TURK: The chain of islands has long been one of the Caribbean's last off-the-beaten-path destinations with the islands lying along the third largest barrier reef in the world. Grand Turk is a pristine place of simple pleasures. On shore, dine on conch fritters and set your watch to "island time." A brand-new cruise terminal here is a destination in its own right, with retail shops, a recreation area right on the beach and a huge pool.
